On which day did God complete the creation of the heavens, the earth, and all that is in them?

The sixth day. (Genesis 2:1)

On which day did God rest after completing the work of creation?

The seventh day (Genesis 2:2-3)

How were the plants watered when no rain had yet fallen on the earth?

A mist went up from the earth and watered the whole face of the ground (Genesis 2:5-6).

How did God form man?

God formed man from the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and thereby man became alive (Genesis 2:7).

Where did God put the man He had created?

In a garden He had planted in the east of Eden (Genesis 2:8)

What manner of trees did God grow in the garden of Eden?

Every tree that was pleasant to the sight and good for food; the tree of life (which was located in the midst of the garden); and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. (Genesis 2:9)

Name the four riverheads that emanated from the river that watered the garden of Eden.

Pishon, Gihon, Hiddekel, and Euphrates (Genesis 2:10-14).

What role was man supposed to play in the garden of Eden, where God placed him?

His role was to tend and keep the garden. (Genesis 2:15)

Which tree did God command man not to eat of its fruit?

The fruit from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil (Genesis 2:17)

Was man free to eat the fruit from the tree of life that was in the midst of the garden of Eden?

Brainstorm with Genesis 2:16-17 in mind.

What could have happened if man ate the fruit from the tree of life instead of the fruit from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil?

Brainstorm with Genesis 2:16-17 in mind.

What would be the consequence of man eating the fruit from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil?

He would die on the same day (Genesis 2:17).

How did God form the beasts of the field and the birds of the air?

He formed them out of the ground (Genesis 2:19).

Why did God bring the creatures He had made out of the ground to Adam?

God wanted to see what name Adam would give to each one of them (Genesis 2:19).

Who gave all the living creatures we see today their names?

Adam (Genesis 2:19)

Why did God make a helper for Adam?

Because God saw that it was not good for him to be alone (Genesis 2:18), and that among all the living things He had created, there was not found a helper comparable to Adam. (Genesis 2:20)

Why did God cause a deep sleep to fall on Adam?

He wanted to remove one of Adam's ribs and then use it to form a woman. (Genesis 2:21-22)

Why did Adam say that the woman was 'bone of his bones, and flesh of his flesh'?

Because the woman had been taken out of him. (Genesis 2:23)

Therefore, a man shall leave his and and be joined to his wife, and they shall become flesh.

Father, mother, one (Genesis 2:24)

Why is it that even though both were naked, the man and his wife didn't feel any shame?

Brainstorm with Genesis 2:17 in mind.
