Why did the sons of God marry the daughters of men?

Because they saw that the daughters of men were beautiful. (Genesis 6:2)

How did God react when His sons took wives from the daughters of men?

He declared that His spirit would not strive with man forever and that the days of man would be one hundred and twenty years. (Genesis 6:3)

When God said that the days of man would be one hundred and twenty years, what did He mean?

Firstly, he meant that the number of years that every man would live in his entire lifetime would not exceed one hundred and twenty years.

Secondly, He meant that He would destroy man after one hundred and twenty years (by the Great Flood).

Brainstorm on the two answers.

Which beings were present on the earth in the days when the sons of God came to the earth and married the daughters of men?

Giants (Genesis 6:4)

According to Genesis 6:4, do you think that giants were born from the union between the sons of God and the daughters of men, or did they come from elsewhere?

When you read the scripture, it says that there were giants on the earth in those days and afterwards? The question is, which days is Moses (the author of Genesis) referring to? The answer is the same scripture, 'the days when the sons of God came and married the daughters of men!' This may mean that the giants were independent actors and had nothing to do with the relationship between the sons of God and the daughters of men! What do you think?

Who are the mighty men of old that Genesis 6:4 refers to?

The giants

Why did God feel sorry that he had made man?

Because man had become very wicked, and every imagination of his heart was continually evil. (Genesis 6:5-6)

The earth had become corrupt and was filled with violence. (Genesis 6:11)

What did God decide to do after seeing the wickedness of man?

God made a decision to destroy man and beast, creeping things, and birds of the air. (Genesis 6:7)

Why did Noah find grace in the eyes of God?

It is because Noah was a just man, perfect in his generation. He was a man who walked with God. (Genesis 6:9)

Who were the three sons of Noah?

Shem, Ham, and Japheth (Genesis 6:10).

Why did God tell Noah that He would destroy all flesh together with the earth?

It is because all flesh had corrupted their way on earth by filling it with violence. (Genesis 6:12)

What did God instruct Noah to build?

An ark (Genesis 6:14)

What material was Noah instructed to use to build the ark?

Gopherwood and pitch. The pitch was for covering its inside and outside. (Genesis 6:14)

What were the dimensions of the ark?

- Length – three hundred cubits
- Width – fifty cubits
- Height – thirty cubits (Genesis 6:15)

How was Noah to set the window and the door for the ark?

The window was to be finished to a cubit from above. The door was to be set on its side. (Genesis 6:16)

How many decks did God instruct Noah to set in the ark?

Three decks (lower, second, and third decks) (Genesis 6:2)

What did God tell Noah He was bringing on the earth to destroy it?

Flood of waters (Genesis 6:17).

What was God going to destroy by the flood of waters?

All flesh under heaven that had the breath of life. (Genesis 6:17)

Who was to enter Noah's ark?

- Noah, his wife, his sons, and his sons' wives (Genesis 6:18)
- Two of every living thing of all flesh, male and female (birds, animals, and every creeping thing). (Genesis 6:19-20)

What else was Noah supposed to bring into the ark?

Food for them and the animals (Genesis 6:21)

I hope this is helpful. Shalom.
